

certificate III in HOSPITALITY

SIT30616

The Certificate III in Hospitality is an ideal qualification for emerging hospitality professionals who wish to progress their career within the industry.

Instead of offering generalised training that won't be relevant to the role you wish to pursue, Club Training Australia offers electives that tailor this course to meet specific goals and requirements. To minimise disruption to students currently working in hospitality, Club Training Australia can deliver this training alongside the students existing job responsibilities.

Students with prior formal training can apply for relevant credits towards their Certificate III in Hospitality.
